FROM: ARKANSAS INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

SUBJECT: SERFF FILING FEES EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1, 2005

DATE: SEPTEMBER 2, 2005

Rule 57 (<http://170.94.5.1/dataservices/PandC/PCRules.htm>) sets fees for all rate and form filings. When SERFF went online, the Commissioner waived filing fees for SERFF filings to encourage insurers to use SERFF.

This bulletin is to announce that, effective October 1, 2005, the Department will commence charging the Rule 57 filing fees for all SERFF filings.

The filer should fill out the section of the SERFF Transmittal Header dealing with the check, make a copy of the first page of the transmittal header and mail it to the Department with the check made payable to the State Insurance Department Trust Fund. The mailing address is:

Arkansas Insurance Dept.
Attn: (Property & Casualty or Life & Health—whichever is appropriate)
1200 W. Third St.
Little Rock, AR 72201-1904

A filing is not considered complete until the filing fee is received by the Department. Failure to send the fee timely could result in a delay in review or subsequent disapproval of the filing as incomplete.

Inquiries concerning SERFF filings should be addressed to the Property and Casualty Division, or to the Life and Health Division, at 501-371-2800; or direct your electronic inquiries to:

Insurance.PnC@arkansas.gov
Insurance.LnH@arkansas.gov

Thank you for your full and complete cooperation in this matter.

Insurance Commissioner
